Judge Thomas McQuade Named 2008 Presiding Judge of County Court's Fourth Judicial District

Judge Thomas McQuade has been named County Court Presiding Judge of the 4th Judicial District (Douglas County) beginning January 15, 2008. The Nebraska Supreme Court approved the nomination of Judge McQuade, whose name was submitted by his fellow county court judges for the leadership position.

Judge McQuade has served on the county court bench in Omaha since February 1987 and previously served as presiding judge in 1990-91, 1998, 1999, 2001, 2004 and 2005.

He is a member of the American Bar Association, Nebraska State Bar Association and the Omaha Bar Association.

As presiding judge, Judge McQuade has primary responsibility for overseeing the delivery of county court services within his judicial district. He will also serve as the liaison to other agencies of local and state government for the Douglas County Court and to the Nebraska State Bar Association and the press.

Presiding judges also bear the responsibility for overseeing personnel matters and providing direction in matters of local policy.
